Matt is originally from upstate New York, but studied in Chicago and Ireland before joining the U.S. Navy. He came to the Pacific Northwest in 1996, after having lived in Sardinia, Italy. He has been working in the legal industry since 1998, and with Richard Martens since 2000. Matt has more than fifteen years' experience handling all phases of civil litigation, from initial appearances through discovery, motion practice, trial, and appeal, in both the state and federal court systems. When he's not working, you'll likely find Matt enjoying time with his dog Buddy, exploring the city's various eateries and theatres, or relaxing on a sandy beach.
