Morgan has extensive experience in civil litigation, including jury trials and post-judgment appeals. Prior to joining Martens + Associates | P.S., Morgan spent more than five years working for one of the largest auto insurers in the country, where he defended his clients and the company in hundreds of arbitrations, dozens of mediations, and more than 15 jury trials. Morgan also previously practiced criminal defense, representing accused persons throughout municipalities and counties across Washington State.

Morgan attended Seattle University School of Law, where he served as an editor for Law Review, and was also a published author. For his undergraduate study, Morgan attended the University of Washington, earning a Bachelors in Business Administration and a minor in Law, Society, and Justice.

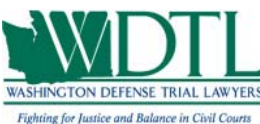

Outside of the office and courtroom, Morgan is an avid outdoor enthusiast. He enjoys cycling, skiing and backpacking. Morgan has climbed to the summit of Mt. Rainier seven times, and he completed Ironman Canada in 2013.
